CM Consulting Presents

Interpersonal Therapy: Level Two (FPS) Training

(Note: accreditation with the GP Mental Health Standards Collaboration and QACPD at the RACGP is being applied for)

What: CMC have invited Professor Sue Luty, a psychiatrist from the Department of Psychological Medicine, Christchurch in New Zealand to assist with this workshop. Sue has expertise in Interpersonal Therapy (IPT) and is recognized as a leader in the region.

IPT focuses on how interpersonal relationships affect the individual and their mental health and in particular grief, conflict and social support.

The workshop will be followed by two supervised sessions with a GP or clinical psychologist to make up the 20 hours required for Level Two training.

Who: GPs wanting Level Two mental health accreditation, or mental health professionals wanting training in IPT.

When: Saturday 1st & Sunday 2nd May 2010
(9.30am - 4.30pm) Plus two evening supervision sessions (dates to be negotiated)

Where: CM Consulting
5/34 Hallett Rd Stonyfell 5066

Cost: $550.00 + $55.00 (GST)

Price includes: Accredited program, refreshments and an extensive workshop manual.
